Disclaimer: The Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE) is the professional organization that provides education, networking, research, and other resources for credentialing professionals. ICE’s research may include evaluation of emerging practices in the credentialing community, coverage of practices that credentialing organizations have undertaken in response to challenging situations, or promotion of exemplary best practices. Every External Stakeholders Project represents the consensus judgment of the individuals on the respective working group and is reviewed by the group as a whole.

ICE’s research products are not necessarily intended to be a guide for obtaining accreditation or for complying with the standards offered through ICE: the National Commission for Certifying Agencies Standards for the Accreditation of Certification Programs, the ISO/IEC 17024:2012 standard on conformity assessment programs, or the ICE 1100 Standard for Assessment-Based Certificate Programs.
